

Unit: Reading Can Seriously Damage Your Ignorance

詳細內容雙語對照 / Detailed Bilingual Content

Unit Introduction / 單元簡介

This unit is composed of three sections: the benefits of reading, the extensive reading approach in language learning and the academic quotation.

本單元由三個部分組成：閱讀的好處、語言學習中的泛讀方法以及學術引用。

“Reading can seriously damage your ignorance.”

「閱讀會嚴重損害你的無知。」

Generally speaking, the words ‘ignore (verb) and ignorance (noun)’ have negative connotation. However, when I first learned the sentence “Reading can seriously damage your ignorance”, I fell in love with it, even with the word ‘ignorance’. This sentence contains two negative words, ‘damage’ and ‘ignorance’, but successfully the person who had created this sentence turned these two words into positive thoughts, which amazed me. So far, I still cannot find the origin of the sentence. (If sometime in the future you come across the information, please share it with me.) Reading is of paramount importance in our life, for we read both for information and pleasure. For instance, we read newspapers to know what happens in the world or websites for information for work. This is what I call ‘read for information’. We read for recreation as well, that is, we read for fun in our leisure time. We read comic books, magazines, novels, tweets or posts on our mobile devices etc. in our own free time. This is “reading for entertainment”, we do them to relax and for enjoyment. Some people are born natural readers; they enjoy reading so much that they are addicted to it, while others don’t, which is totally acceptable. This difference regarding the reading habits adds the variety of people.

一般來說，『ignore (動詞)』和『ignorance (名詞)』這兩個詞具有負面含意。然而，當我第一次學到「閱讀會嚴重損害你的無知」這句話時，我愛上了它，即使裡面有『無知』這個詞。這句話包含了兩個負面單字，『損害』和『無知』，但創造這句話的人成功地將這兩個詞轉化為積極的想法，這讓我感到驚訝。到目前為止，我仍然找不到這句話的來源。(如果將來您遇到相關信息，請與我分享。)閱讀在我們的生活中至關重要，因為我們閱讀既是為了獲取信息，也是為了獲得樂趣。例如，我們閱讀報紙以了解世界上發生的事情，或者閱讀網站以獲取工作信息。這就是我所說的「為獲取信息而閱讀」。我們也為了消遣而閱讀，也就是在閒暇時間為了好玩而閱讀。我們在空閒時間閱讀漫畫書、雜誌、小說、行動裝置上的推文等。這就是「為娛樂而閱讀」，我們閱讀它們是為了放鬆和享受。有些人天生就是閱讀者，他們非常喜歡閱讀以至於上癮，而有些人則不喜歡，這完全是可以接受的。這種關於閱讀習慣的差異增加了人們的多樣性。

Benefits of Reading / 閱讀的好處

Nevertheless, I still would like to continue promoting reading by talking about its benefits and then introduce an enjoyable method for learning English through reading since this course is about learning culture knowledge through ‘reading’. Therefore, in this unit, we will learn the benefits of reading and extensive reading approach first, and in the next unit, we will discuss what we should read and how much we should read. Afterall, the reading culture is an important element of a culture, too.

儘管如此，我仍然希望通過談論閱讀的好處來繼續推廣閱讀，然後介紹一種通過閱讀學習英語的愉快方法，因為本課程是關於通過『閱讀』來學習文化知識的。因此，在本單元中，我們將首先學習閱讀的好處和泛讀方法，在下一個單元中，我們將討論我們應該閱讀什麼以及我們應該閱讀多少。畢竟，閱讀文化也是一個文化的重要元素。

Reading is a skill that we try to develop since childhood. We learned how to read Chinese first through picture books with few words, then gradually through textbooks which contain longer texts, such as prose, poems, classical literatures, and other genres. Reading English as your second language should probably follow the same path. Please recall the first time you read your ‘homerun book’ (Trelease, 2001), the first book you successfully finished in Chinese, you must have had the ‘sense of completion and satisfaction’. We need the same experience in English reading. This kind of initial successful reading experience resulted in positive attitudes toward reading, the growth of motivation to read, and fed back into later reading experiences, resulting in more gains in reading ability, positive attitudes, motivation and enjoyment (Chiang, 2009:56-57).

閱讀是我們從小就努力培養的一項技能。我們首先通過字數很少的圖畫書學習如何閱讀中文，然後逐漸通過教科書閱讀更長的文本，例如散文、詩歌、古典文學和其他體裁。英語作為第二語言的閱讀可能也應該遵循同樣的路徑。請回想一下您第一次閱讀「全壘打書」(Trelease, 2001)時的經歷——這是您用中文成功讀完的第一本書，您一定有過『成就感和滿足感』。我們在英語閱讀中也需要同樣的體驗。這種最初的成功閱讀體驗帶來了對閱讀的積極態度、閱讀動機的增長，並回饋到後來的閱讀體驗中，從而帶來閱讀能力、積極態度、動機和樂趣的更多收穫 (Chiang, 2009)。

The Extensive Reading Approach / 泛讀教學法

The abovementioned experience of learning to read through reading is what we called 'Extensive Reading Approach'. It is an approach in EFL in which learners read a lot of materials at their level in the new language. The learners should choose their own reading materials and read them, mainly, independently or sometimes with necessary help when needed. The learners will read for general and overall meaning, and they read for information and enjoyment. If the learners find the materials boring, difficult or uninteresting, they can stop reading that book immediately. Learners are also encouraged to expand their reading comfort zone once they find the materials they are reading rather easy (Bamford & Day, 2004). Many successful Extensive Reading programs have been carried out, thus it is an acknowledged approach worldwide.

上述通過閱讀學習閱讀的體驗就是我們所說的「泛讀方法 (Extensive Reading Approach)」。這是在英語作為外語 (EFL) 中的一種方法，學習者在該方法中閱讀大量適合其水平的新語言材料。學習者應該選擇自己的閱讀材料並進行閱讀，主要是在沒有輔助的情況下獨立閱讀，或者有時在需要時獲得必要的幫助。學習者將為了大意和整體含義而閱讀，他們為了信息和樂趣而閱讀。如果學習者覺得這些材料無聊、困難或無趣，他們可以立即停止閱讀那本書。學習者也被鼓勵一旦發現他們正在閱讀的材料相當簡單，就擴展他們的閱讀舒適區 (Bamford & Day, 2004)。許多成功的泛讀項目已經開展，因此這是一項在全球範圍內獲得認可的方法。

This approach is also mentioned in some of the English courses at National Open University. Therefore, I think it is better to include more information and clarify the spirit of this approach more clearly. Day and Bamrofd (1998; Chiang, 2009) list the characteristics found in successful extensive reading programs:

此方法在國立空中大學的一些英語課程中也有提及。因此，我認為最好納入更多信息，並更清楚地闡明該方法的精神。Day 和 Bamford (1998; Chiang, 2009) 列出了成功泛讀計劃中發現的特徵：

1. Students read as much as possible, probably in and definitely 'out' of the classroom.
1. 學生儘可能多地閱讀，可能在課堂內，但絕對在課堂外。
2. A variety of materials on a wide range of topics is available so as to encourage reading for different reasons and in different ways.
2. 提供涵蓋廣泛主題的多種材料，以鼓勵出於不同原因和以不同方式進行閱讀。
3. Students select what they want to read and have the freedom to stop reading materials that fail to interest them.
3. 學生選擇他們想讀的內容，並有自由停止閱讀無法吸引他們的材料。
4. The purposes of reading are usually related to pleasure, information, and general understanding. These purposes are determined by the nature of the materials and the interests of the learner.
4. 閱讀的目的通常與樂趣、信息和一般理解有關。這些目的由材料的性質和學習者的興趣決定。
5. Reading is its own reward. There are few or no follow-up exercises after reading.
5. 閱讀本身就是回報。閱讀後很少或沒有後續練習。
6. Reading materials are well within the linguistic competence of the students in terms of vocabulary and grammar. Dictionaries are rarely used while reading because the constant stopping to look up words makes fluent reading difficult.
6. 閱讀材料在詞彙和語法方面完全在學生的語言能力範圍內。閱讀時很少使用字典，因為不斷停下來查字會使流利閱讀變得困難。

7. Reading is individual and silent, at the student's own pace, and, outside classroom, done when and where the student chooses.

7. 閱讀是獨立且無聲的，按照學生自己的節奏進行，並且在課堂外，在學生選擇的時間和地點進行。

8. Reading speed is usually faster rather than slower as students read books and other material they find easily understandable.

8. 閱讀速度通常較快而非較慢，因為學生閱讀的是他們發現容易理解的書籍和其他材料。

9. Teacher/parents orient students to the goals of the program, explain methodology, keep track of what each student reads, and guide students in getting the most out of the program.

9. 教師/家長引導學生了解該計畫的目標，解釋方法，追蹤每個學生的閱讀情況，並指導學生從該計畫中獲得最大收益。

10. The teacher/parent is a role model of a reader for students – an active member of the classroom reading community, demonstrating what it means to be a reader and the rewards of being a reader.

10. 教師/家長是學生閱讀的榜樣——是課堂閱讀社群的活躍成員，展示了作為一名閱讀者的意義以及作為一名閱讀者的回報。

Being able to read in English is necessary for we need to do it to access information, operate machines and computers as well as entertain ... Reading brings many good things to people who read in large quantity in a new language (Chiang, 2009:43). Many good things happen to students who read a great deal in the new language. Research studies show that they become better and more confident readers, they write better, their listening and speaking abilities improve, and their vocabulary gets richer. In addition, they develop positive attitudes towards and increase motivation to studying the new language (Bamford & Day, 2004:1). We can only learn to read by reading (Smith, 1973) and only reading promotes reading – the more students read, the more their vocabulary grow, the more words they can read, the more reading they can do. There does not seem to be a shortcut to becoming a fluent reader, according to a large amount of studies.

能夠閱讀英語是必要的，因為我們需要用它來獲取信息、操作機器和電腦以及娛樂.....閱讀給以新語言進行大量閱讀的人帶來了許多好處 (Chiang, 2009)。許多好事會發生在大量閱讀新語言材料的學生身上。研究表明，他們會成為更好、更自信的閱讀者，寫作能力提高，聽力和口語能力改善，詞彙量也變得更豐富。此外，他們會對學習新語言建立積極態度並增加動機 (Bamford & Day, 2004)。根據大量研究，要成為流利的閱讀者似乎沒有捷徑。

Reading a book should be similar to watching a good science fiction movie. It can take you to any time and space you want to be. It does not have to be like the Chinese saying 'no pain, no gain'. Many of us knew the story about a scholar who studied bitterly and had to stick an awl in his calf to wake himself up in the middle of the night. If the book is right, then a reader is most likely to stay up in that 'literal space and world' until one finishes the book and knows the ending. Readers ought to love the books and read on without any bitterness.

閱讀一本書應該類似於看一部好的科幻電影。它可以帶你去任何你想去的時空。它不需要像中國俗話說的『書山有路勤為徑，學海無涯苦作舟』。我們中許多人都知道關於一個學者苦讀、不得不在半夜將錐子刺入小腿（頭懸梁，錐刺股）以喚醒自己的故事。如果書選得對，那麼讀者極有可能在那個『字面空間和世界』中熬夜，直到讀完書並知道結局。讀者應該熱愛書籍並在沒有任何痛苦的情況下繼續閱讀。

Academic Quotations / 學術引用規範

Finally, let us learn about the ‘reference’ or ‘work cited’ in the text of this unit. You see many examples such as “(Trelease, 2001)” and then found the smaller number hanging on the upper right. This indicates the source of the information that I have used. So, at the bottom of the page, you will find the ‘footnote’ like this: 1 Trelease, J. (2001). The read-aloud handbook (4th ed.). New York: Penguin. This gives further detailed information about the piece of information I used, including the author, the year of publishing, the book title and edition, place and company of publication. The order or styles are regulated, but there are different styles academically, such as APA style, MLA style etc. Learning how to quote correctly is important for academic work; otherwise, you will violate plagiarism and it is a serious issue in the academic world. You must add the reference where you have used the citation (in-text citation), and then present the whole reference in the middle of the text, or at the end of the writing in the alphabetical order by the author’s last name.

最後，讓我們來學習本單元文本中的「參考文獻」或「引用作品」。您會看到許多例子，例如「(Trelease, 2001)」，然後在右上角發現懸掛的小數字。這表明了我所使用的信息的來源。因此，在頁面底部，您會找到這樣的「腳註」：1 Trelease, J. (2001). 《朗讀手冊》(第四版)。紐約：企鵝出版社。這提供了關於我所使用信息的進一步詳細信息，包括作者、出版年份、書名和版本、出版地點和公司。順序或樣式是受規律限制的，但學術上有不同的樣式，例如 APA 樣式、MLA 樣式等。正確引用對於學術工作非常重要；否則，您將違反剽竊，這在學術界是一個嚴肅的問題。您必須在使用了引用的地方添加參考文獻（文中引用），然後在文本中間或在寫作結束時按作者姓氏的字母順序呈現整個參考文獻。
